

Carrara, 28.9.2011

Subject: iF Photo Award

The jury panel met to lay down the selection criteria and select the winners; the first three winners are listed below.
Panel members were:

Chairman:

Roberto Franzoni, architect
Editor in chief, F stone magazine

Members:

Decio Giulio Carugati
Deputy editor in chief, F stone Magazine

Federigo Salvadori
Professional photographer

Nicola Pedrini
Art Director

Prof. Pier Giorgio Balocchi
Full Professor of Sculpture
Accademia di Belle Arti di Carrara

Dr Francesco Gorlandi
Publisher

After establishing that no jury members had any relations of potential interest in the nominees and after reading out the rules of the award, the following four selection criteria were laid down:

1. Consistency with the subject of the award
2. Personal approach
3. Aesthetics
4. Technical standard

After a wide discussion, the jury declared the following three winners:

First place:

Johan Armando Blanco, flickr nickname arq.blancoc, country: Venezuela, photo title: Infinity, place: Parigi.

Second place:

Alberto Lovisetto, flickr nickname AlberoL Photo, country: Italy, photo title: 3 columns, place: Phanteon, Parigi.

Third place:

Gabriele De Palo, flickr nickname DePalo, country: Italy, photo title: Modulor, place: Palace of Justice, Palermo.

The winners have been contacted by email and will receive the prize awarded to them within a month.
Thank you all for participating.